PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The Model 420 has been discontinued. We recommend the ATR120 time clock or ES900 time recorder if you need a replacement. The Acroprint Model 420 is an electronic time recorder document control stamp that handles all of your time keeping requirements. It features fast, simple, and quiet operation and can be adjusted for either weekly, bi weekly or monthly pay periods. This unit also has a built in signal control program to activate bells, horns or buzzers to synchronize breaks or ends of shifts. You can also get a Ni Cad battery as a backup for full operation when AC power is out.
